The applicant business and I agree to NAMM's Policies and to be bound by NAMM's bylaws and by all applicable rules and regulations, as they may be amended from time to time by NAMM (a copy of these policies are available at www.namm.org or by written request to NAMM at info@namm.org or by mail at 5790 Armada Drive, Carlsbad, California, USA 92008.) The applicant business agrees not to sue NAMM for contributory infringement, or any other theory that NAMM is indirectly or secondarily liable for the intellectual property violation of another party, or threaten to do so. The applicant business represents and warrants to NAMM that the business owns or validly possesses the right to make, use, perform, sell and display any patented products, copyrighted works, trademarks, service marks, and trade names (collectively "Intellectual Property"), as the case may be, that will be used by the business in connection with its Membership in NAMM and at The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows. Breach of the foregoing warranty shall be grounds for immediate revocation of Membership, without notice or hearing. The applicant business acknowledges that NAMM is relying on this representation and warranty and has no obligation to monitor or investigate or stop the uses and displays of Intellectual Property or allegedly infringing Intellectual Property by the business or other parties in connection with NAMM events or publications, including but not limited to The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows. The applicant business covenants not to sue, file, or maintain or threaten any action in law or in equity against NAMM or any NAMM personnel alleging that any use or display by any third party of Intellectual Property in connection with NAMM events or publications, including but not limited to The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows, infringes or otherwise violates any right or title held by the business or any of its officers, directors, and owners. The applicant business agrees to hold harmless and indemnify NAMM and NAMM personnel from and against any and all loss, cost, expense, claim, liability or damage including reasonable attorney's fees, arising in connection with trademark, service mark, trade name, copyright, or patent infringement by the business or its affiliates, officers, directors, owners, or other personnel.

How to Join NAMM as a Manufacturer Rep Member

In order to process your application for NAMM Membership, we'll need to gather some additional information about you and your company.

Once you have completed the application, please email or fax it to us with the following documentation:

1. A list of three MI Suppliers or Dealers you do business with
 - Why? NAMM members should be legitimately engaged in the selling of music and sound products and services. By listing three companies and contacts you are either representing or selling to, we can ensure that all members are active in their business. No documentation is necessary. We'll take care of the rest!

2. A government-issued document showing your company name.
 - Why? Every NAMM Member is asked to have on file a copy of a government-issued document (i.e. business license, sales tax permit, corporate documentation, etc...) showing proof of legal company name.
 - Also, if your company operates with a DBA, please include documentation for that additional name in addition to the corporate name.

Once you have everything complete and ready to go, you can submit it by email (join@namm.org) fax (760-496-1160) or by mail to:

NAMM
Attn: Membership
5790 Armada Drive
Carlsbad, CA 92008

Once we have this documentation, we can begin to process and review your application. This process typically takes about 48 hours. Once approved, you'll receive an email from us with your Membership information!

Thank you—we look forward to having you as a NAMM Member!
