The business applying for Membership represents that it is actively and legitimately engaged (although not as its predominant business) in selling musical instruments or products at retail and in related activities such as providing music lessons, instruments repair, or instrument or studio rental, and that the business purchases musical instruments, products, or components for such retail sales from three or more music industry manufacturers or distributors (or at wholesale from dealers). Misrepresentation is grounds for revocation of Membership without notice or hearing.

The applicant business and I agree to NAMM's Policies and to be bound by NAMM's bylaws and by all applicable rules and regulations, as they may be amended from time to time by NAMM (a copy of these policies are available at www.namm.org or by written request to NAMM at info@namm.org or by mail at 5790 Armada Drive, Carlsbad, California, USA 92008.) All sales are final. No refunds on Membership dues, trade show attendance fees or services.

The applicant business agrees not to sue NAMM for contributory infringement, or any other theory that NAMM is indirectly or secondarily liable for the intellectual property violation of another party, or threaten to do so. The applicant business represents and warrants to NAMM that the business owns or validly possesses the right to make, use, perform, sell and display any patented products, copyrighted works, trademarks, service marks, and trade names (collectively "Intellectual Property"), as the case may be, that will be used by the business in connection with its Membership in NAMM and at The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows. Breach of the foregoing warranty shall be grounds for immediate revocation of Membership, without notice or hearing. The applicant business acknowledges that NAMM is relying on this representation and warranty and has no obligation to monitor or investigate or stop the uses and displays of Intellectual Property or allegedly infringing Intellectual Property by the business or other parties in connection with NAMM events or publications, including but not limited to The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows. The applicant business covenants not to sue, file, or maintain or threaten any action in law or in equity against NAMM or any NAMM personnel alleging that any use or display by any third party of Intellectual Property in connection with NAMM events or publications, including but not limited to The NAMM Show and other NAMM trade shows, infringes or otherwise violates any right or title held by the business or any of its officers, directors, and owners. The applicant business agrees to hold harmless and indemnify NAMM and NAMM personnel from and against any and all loss, cost, expense, claim, liability or damage including reasonable attorney's fees, arising in connection with trademark, service mark, trade name, copyright, or patent infringement by the business or its affiliates, officers, directors, owners, or other personnel.

Privacy Consent Language for NAMM Communications

Whenever I provide e-mail address(es) and fax number(s) to NAMM, above or otherwise, the business and I are consenting to receive NAMM communications by email and fax, including, but not limited to, trade show/hotel registration notices and membership reminders, as well as promotions of NAMM's various programs and services provided as benefits of Membership.

HOW TO JOIN NAMM AS AN AFFILIATE RETAIL MEMBER

In order to process your application for NAMM Membership, we'll need to gather some additional information about you and your company.

Once you have completed the application, please email or fax it to us with the following documentation:

1. A list of three dealers/Distributors you do business with
 - Why? NAMM members should be legitimately engaged in the selling of music and sound products and services. By listing three companies and contacts you sell to, we can ensure that all members are active in their business.
2. A government-issued document showing your company name.
 - Why? Every NAMM Member is asked to have on file a copy of a government-issued document (i.e. business license, sales tax permit, corporate documentation, etc...) showing proof of legal company name.
 - Also, if your company operates with a DBA, please include documentation for that additional name in addition to the corporate name.
3. Send a copy of 2 invoices showing the wholesale purchase of supplies from manufacturers or distributors.
 - Why? NAMM members should be legitimately engaged in the selling of music and sound products and services. By providing two invoices, we can ensure that all members are active in their business.

Once you have everything complete and ready to go, you can submit it by email (join@namm.org) fax (760-304-5857) or by mail to:

NAMM
Attn: Membership
5790 Armada Drive
Carlsbad, CA 92008

Once we have this documentation, we can begin to process and review your application. This process typically takes about 48 hours. Once approved, you'll receive an email from us with your Membership information!

Thank you—we look forward to having you as a NAMM Member!
