Bob Weir & Friends Set to Perform For One Night Only at D'Angelico Guitars' NAMM Booth 212AB

NEW YORK—November 2016—On Friday, January 20th, at the 2017 NAMM show, legendary jam band guitarist Bob Weir will be performing at D'Angelico Guitars' Booth 212AB featuring a star-studded line up. For one night only, "Bob Weir and Friends" are set to take the stage after hours during D'Angelico's VIP party.

Featuring Guns n Roses' Matt Sorum, The Rascals' Gene Cornish, The Doobie Brothers' Jeff Skunk Baxter, and soul-rock sensation Robert Randolph, Bob Weir & Friends have come together to celebrate the debut of Weir's signature D'Angelico model and kick off another remarkable year for Dead fans.

Exclusively for dealers, distributors, and publications, the event is invitation only, with a pass required for access to the show and premium open bar. Starting with a cocktail hour by jazz guitarist Fabrizio Sotti at 6pm, Weir and Friends take the stage at 7pm.
